UK DISTRIBUTORS WANTED FOR WORK FROM HOME JOBS FOR MUMS

WE ARE LOOKING FOR UK
HOMEWORERS FOR A WELL
RESPECTED ESSENTIAL OILS COMPANY, TRAINING AND SUPPORT GIVEN TO THE

If your situation is the same as many people, you are getting up each morning and wondering whether or not you have a job to go to. It is not your fault or in fact anyone's fault, but the situation is what it is and winging about it will not help.

So, what is the solution?

For many, it is to do nothing and hope that tomorrow is a better day. Unfortunately, if we do nothing, nothing happens. The only true solution is to take action in the direction of finding a way of making an income. However, to be able to find a solution we need to understand what the problem is in the first place.

WHY IS IT NOT POSSIBLE TO MAKE MONEY OR FIND A JOB?

The likelihood is, you are out of work or unable to work and there is a slim possibility under the latest situation to find anything that will bring in enough money. Childcare is nonexistent and schools may open full time or they may not. The only certainty is that you will be mainly at home. This is the key word at the moment

- We are living home
- We are working at home
- Our free-time is at home
- And we are sleeping at home
- In fact, we are doing everything at home

One option that is on many peoples minds is; "can I do something financially beneficial from home?"

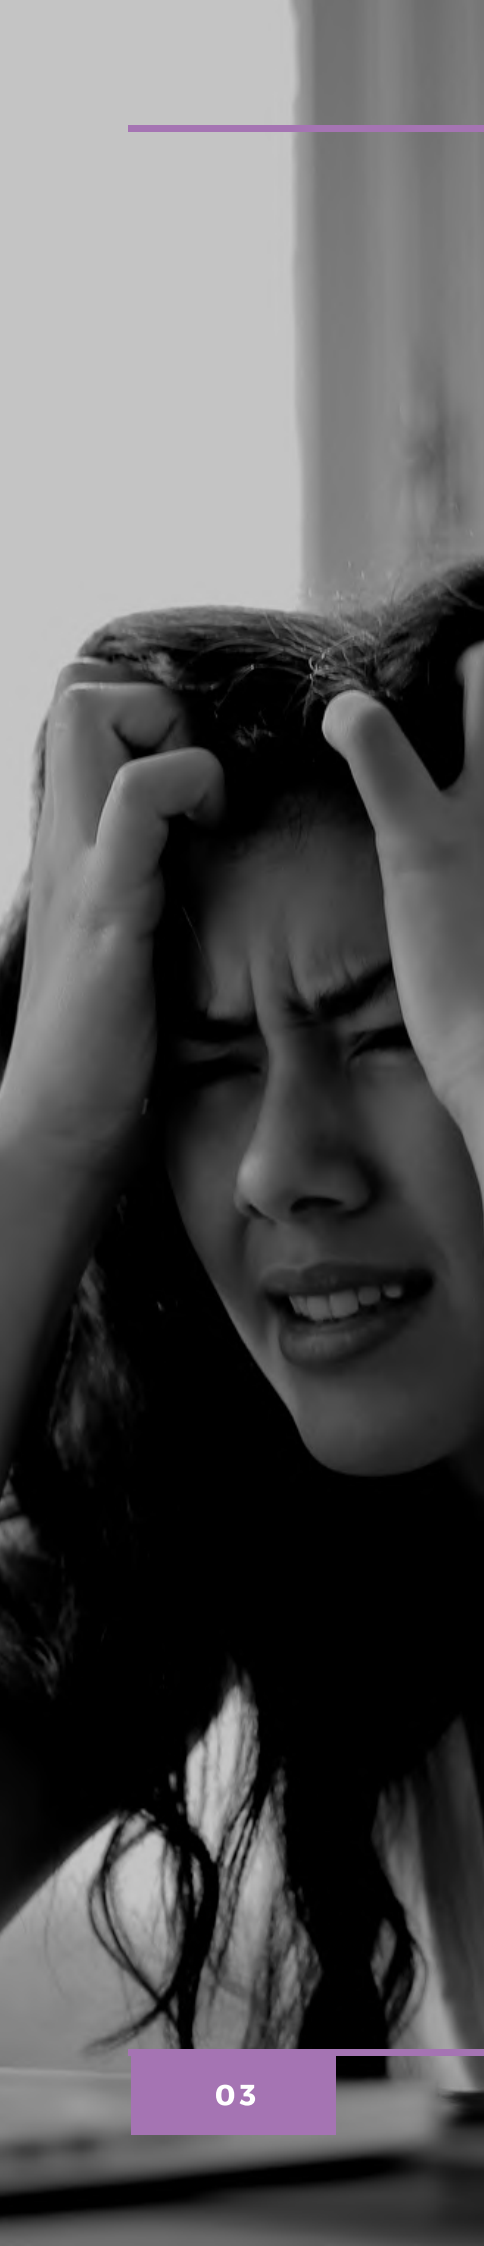

Yes, that is an option and is for millions of stay at home parents all over the world as well as the UK.

The latest lock-down has made that issue even more pronounced when in many cases people have lost jobs that will never be replaced. Some examples are restaurants, travel jobs, and even the corner shop where many parents did part-time work in the evenings. They have all gone the same way. There is just too many workers willing to work and not enough places to employ them.

IS WORK FROM HOME JOBS FOR MUMS TOO DIFFICULT TO ARRANGE?

I will concede that working from home in the UK takes a lot of work to work. Many mothers will tell you it is far too difficult to work from home with kids around. However, in the end, it will be down to money and if you can live without it. Can you and your family afford NOT to start a home based job and become a homemaker or distributor?

UK HOMEWORKERS DON'T DO IT JUST FOR THE MONEY

CAN YOU AND YOUR FAMILY AFFORD NOT TO START A HOME BASED JOB AND BECOME A HOMEWORKER OR DISTRIBUTOR?

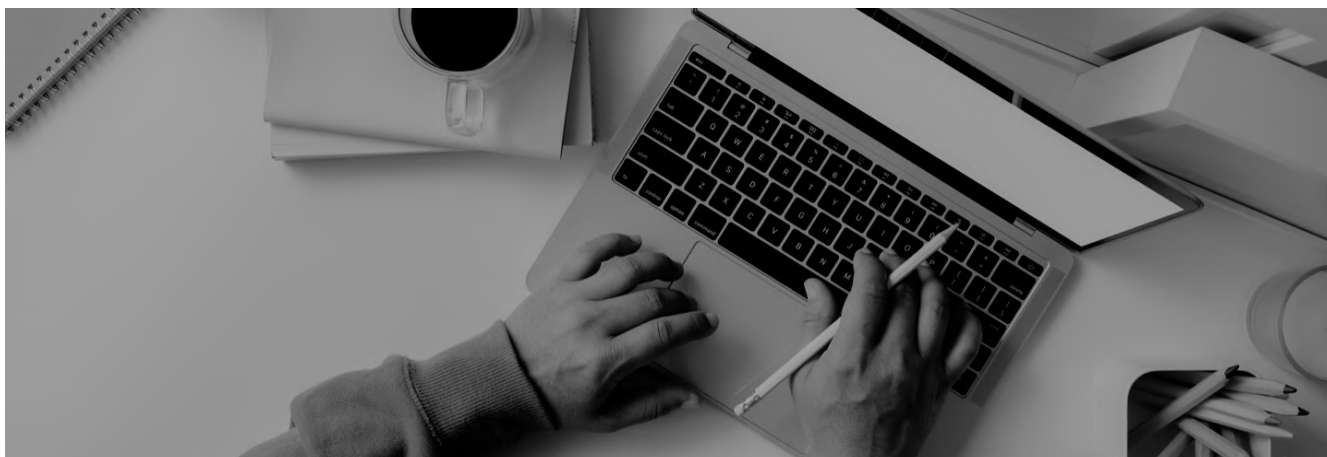

I will concede that working from home in the UK takes a lot of work to work. Many mothers will tell you it is far too difficult to work from home with kids around. However, in the end, it will be down to money and if you can live without it. Can you and your family afford NOT to start a home based job and become a homemaker or distributor?

UK homeworkers don't do it just for the money

Many home workers I speak to argue that it is not about the money, but I am skeptical. It is about the money, but there are other reasons why home based UK distributors enjoy there working lives.

- They can work any time (and often anywhere)
- There is no dress code at home
- There is no commuting into work
- They will save money
- They will have quality time with their families
- They will stay healthier
- They might make even more money
- And almost anyone can do it

The fact that anyone can work from home makes it very easy to get started and an attractive option. So, if you are a stay at home mum or caring for an elderly parent, having the opportunity to make some extra money can be the solution that you have been looking for.

THERE ARE UK DISTRIBUTORS WANTED AND THEY ARE WANTED NOW

THE ONLY THING I FEEL I SHOULD MENTION IS THAT EVEN THOUGH THERE IS A BIG NEED FOR DISTRIBUTORS, LIKE ANYTHING WORTH ACHIEVING, "WORK IS REQUIRED"

The only thing I feel I should mention is that even though there is a big need for distributors, like anything worth achieving, "work is required". It is not an option, you will not make any money without it, so I will repeat it so it is clear to everyone, "work is required".

The criteria

If you are that person who is interested in living a healthier lifestyle while learning about the benefits of essential oils you have come to the right place. My advice is, don't bother about working from home, simply become a wholesale customer and purchase the oils at 25% below retails.

However, if you also see yourself as someone who is interested in making extra money from home the criteria is very different. The fact is, it is pointless embarking on a journey as a sales rep until you are committed to treating it as a business and a new career.

So, before you even make that decision to become a UK homeworkers, you need to aspire to the ideas in the list below:

- Be a serious dreamer
- Be someone who aims for their goals
- Be someone who aims high!
- Be someone who knows and understands their WHY!
- Be someone that understands that running a business means big changes and so a list of all the possible changes you will have to made
- Be someone that understands they need to clarify all skills needed to achieve their goals, then make your goals achievable
- Be someone who will make a 1-year plan
- Be someone that will specify the moves they need to make to achieve their goals
- Be someone that marks all the things you will do within a year on your calendar
- Be someone who wants to become a Leader

WHAT TYPE OF FULL OR PART TIME UK HOMEWORKERS JOB WOULD YOU SUGGEST?

The company we are suggesting is called doTERRA. doTERRA was formed in 2008 in the US and shortly after arrived in the UK. They offers a full range of therapeutic grade essential oils and related health and wellness products.

Why would customers buy doTERRA oils and products?

doTERRA is offering the highest quality essential oils sold exclusively by their distributors or wellness advocates. They offer the best service when sharing their knowledge and information about the oils they sell.

Where does doTERRA operate?

Apart from the United Kingdom, doTERRA has already a strong presence in North America, Europe, Oceania, Latin America, Asia and South Africa. doTERRA has been trending globally, hence has become one of the best work from home jobs for Mums in the home business industry.

What is my competition?

doTERRA oils are big business in the health and wellness world in the UK and globally. In my opinion, their is nothing to compare with their business plan and the product quality offered.

There are only a few other companies doing as well, however the doTERRA rep seems to have a much more sustainable business model that allows them to work for just a few hours a week.

What are the benefits of working from home with doTERRA in the UK?

- doTERRA is a safe and steady company that wont let you down
- They are a debt free company without outstanding loans
- Unlimited earning potential from day one
- You will get 25% off retail on all doTERRA Products - Click here for Doterra UK price list
